Mrs. Kathryn Van Houten Swims Bravely . Out, when Fisherman on Pier Cries "Gosh, That's My Hat!"

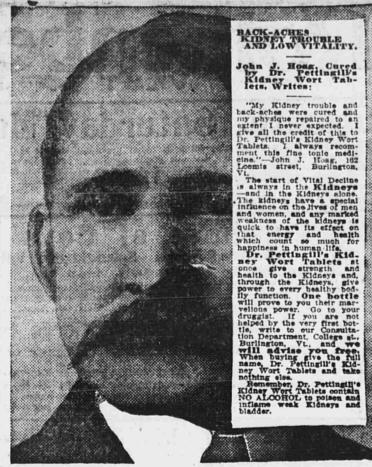

A hat floating in the water off the Canarate pier last night caused a shout of "man overboard" in the crowd, and before an investigation could be made Mrs. Kathryn Van Houten, twenty-beven years old, of No. 90 Stone avenue, had wedged her way through the crowd and had dived into the water.

With a masterful stroke she swan but to where the bat was. Finding no one she dived several times. The crowd was cheering her and she was making noble effort to rescue some one when a bareheaded fisherman came down the pler, and sighting the hat in the water

"Gosh! that's my hat. She blew off as was a-comin' in."

Mrs. Van Houten swam over to moat and was being pulled aboard when her leg struck a submerged rail and a Meep gash was inflicted. Her wound was dressed by Dr. Dooley, of the Bradford Street Hospital, and she was sent

Another Phenomenal Sale of Wash Vests

.50 To-Morrow for Kinds Made to Sell at $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00. The Finest Lot Ever Offered Underprice.

A couple of months ago we conducted a sale of Washable Vests for Men that broke all records for the number sold in two business days, and incidentally established a new record for fine Vests at a low

To-morrow we offer another lot-unquestionably the finest we have ever had. They represent the highest art of custom tailoring, and the materials are such as are invariably confined to exclusive haberdashers.

There is not a Vest in the entire collection that can be bought in any store for less than $3. There are hundreds, duplicates of which will see in store windows around town at $4 and $5. Not alone duplicates of style, but materials.

making, pearl buttons and general finish. All the best-known Wash Vest materials are represented, while patterns are nest and decidedly natty. In short, they are the sort of Vests most men would care to own.

All sizes to start the selling to-morrow, arranged on many special tables with plenty of additional helpers to serve you quickly.

Double and Single Breasted

Regulars and Stouts; Sizes 33 to 46.

Also double breasted Full Dress Styles, in pique and mercerized materials, up to 44 bust measure; and we've taken particular care to have plenty of the large sizes—especially 40 to 46 in stout sizes.

Men's and Youths' $12 Serge Suits To-Morrow, $8.50

Another Saturday attraction in the Clothing Store—this time a sale of Blue Serge Suits for Men and Youths; the sort of Suits most folk prefer for Summer wear. But these are so much better than the ordinary-and so little in price-that they form a very strong Saturday attraction.

The Serre used in these Suits is pure Indigo dyed—by an entirely new process. And this process is so perfect that climate weather conditions have no effect whatever on the material. Strangely, too, this process strengthens the the wearing qualities.

They are handsomely trimmed garments; lined throughout with Italian cloth; cut on the broadshoulder effect. We have every size. Twelve Dollar Suits, no matter how you figure—but yours to-
